FOREWORD

Before planting his crop, a good farmer makes sure his fields are in prime condition; just so has Handley prepared us to enter new fields. When harvest time comes, the farmer recalls the sun and the rain which have nurtured his plants. Today as we draw near our graduation, we, too, look back, recalling the many factors which have played a part in our school life. We have tried to recapture these scenes in words and pictures so that in years to come this Handlian will serve as a reminder of our years at Handley.

In honor of Mr. Fry and because of his interest, and the interest he has instilled in his many students in Agriculture, we have chosen this as the theme for our book.

DEDICATION

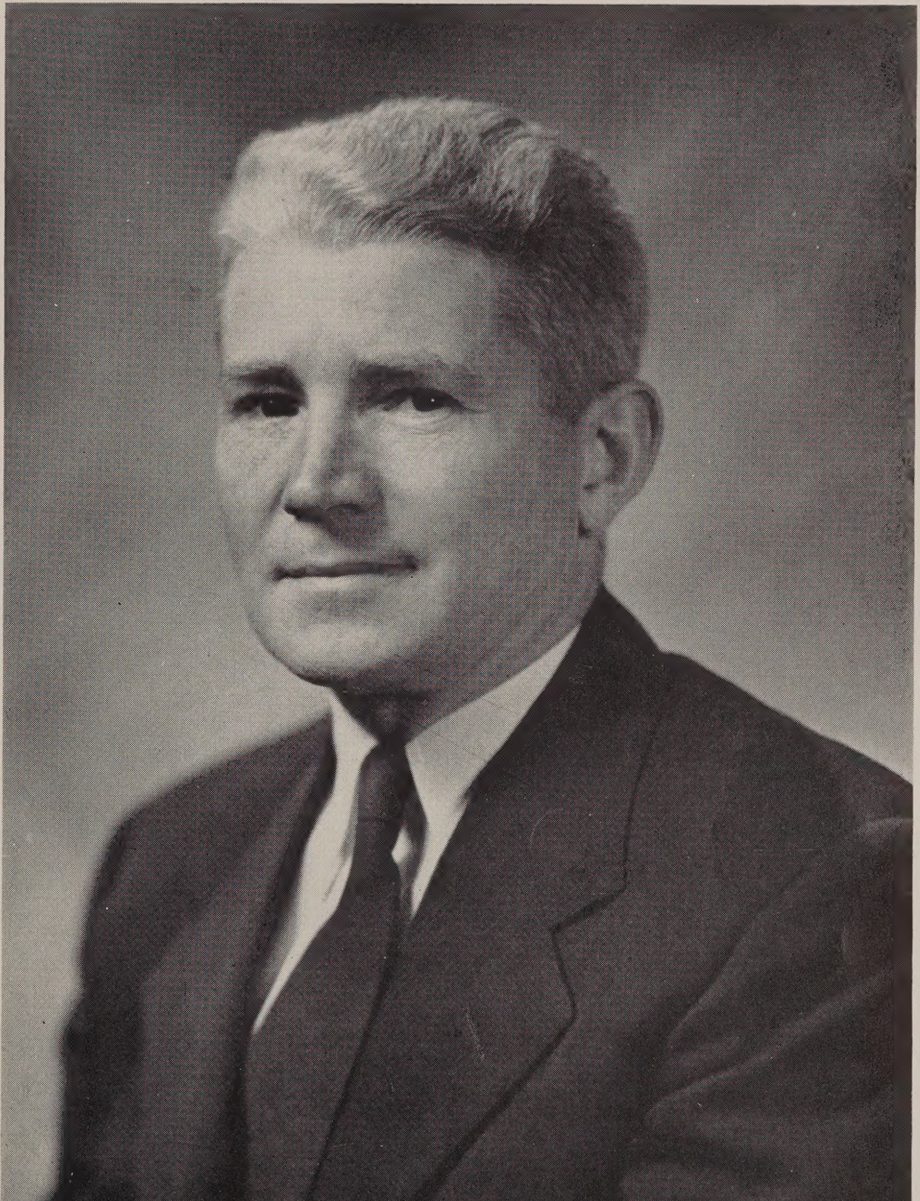
Because you have believed in us and our abilities; because you have willingly given of your time and your energy whenever we needed your help; because you have helped us make our dreams the realities we only dared hope they would be; because to us you stand for the ideals of school citizenship and tolerant understanding which we feel typifies all that is finest at Handley; we dedicate our 1950 Handlian to you, Mr. Fry. Please accept this as an expression of the affection and appreciation of each member of the class of 1950. We in turn shall carry with us the memory of your ready smile and unfailing friendship.



MR. ARCHIE L. FRY

In Memoriam

MR. C. DUDLEY BENNETT

Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere;
Heav'n did a recompense as largely send:
He gave to Mis'ry all he had, a tear,
He gain'd from Heav'n ('twas all he wish'd)
a friend.

Gray

His place is vacant; no more will he endeavor to encourage and incite us on toward success. The pleasure which we once found in his intimate friendship has now changed to sorrow; but remnants of his ready advice, companionship, and helpfulness remain with us. None who knew him could ever forget his prevailing cheerfulness and willingness to sacrifice his time for the good of others. Although for a while he has left us, our memories of him will be everlasting.

Reflections

Farewell, Dear Handley, majestic, serene,
White pillared, resplendent in vast everygreen;
Your walls are vine-covered; your windows are wide,
To capture the sunlight and bring it inside,
And I at my desk, looking out o'er the green,
See a pageant of springtime, a crown for a queen.
Your steps bear sweet flowers of every hue;
A goddess of sunlight, and princesses too.
Mother Goose and her family, are there by the wall;
Humpty Dumpty leans over; he's going to fall!
The trumpet is sounding, the queen has stepped down
In regal formality, wearing a crown.
And while her attendents are standing in wait,
She is shown to her throne by a person of state.
The National Anthem peals out on the air,
A flash of Old Glory is seen on the stair.
There's wind in the fir trees; there's sun on the hill.
The vision has faded, the campus is still.
The glory of summer glides gently to fall.
And the air is alive with the din of football.
I'll remember you Handley, after new fallen snow,
Cascades down the fir trees, in row upon row.
The ice on the boughs of the oaks in between,
Produces a wonderland, white and serene.
The children look merry, their faces aglow;
As they zig-zag their way, through the fluffy white snow.
The spirit of Christmas then captures us all.
As the Glee Clubs' clear voices ring out through the hall.
It comes back to me now, as I sit here today
And dream along back o'er the school's old pathway.
I'm a Senior this year; I am proud, yet I'm sad
To give up the best school years a girl ever had.
Our teachers were wise, and kindly as well;
And their patience and interest without parallel;
And if in the future our pathway is bright,
We owe it to them, who, have started us right.
As the flame in the lamp of our school years burns low;
We give thanks to John Handley, for making it so.

SENIOR SOUVENIRS

1949-1950

SEPTEMBER, 1949—1950

After that wonderful vacation we sure hated to come back to school, but being Seniors certainly cheered us up. When school started on the 8th, we met the 5 new members of our class. Rooms 22 and 24 paid their G. O. dues 100% right at the start—but natch! We settled down to the old routine—plenty of homework for a good start. Funny thing—even after that long vacation we were already looking forward to week-ends.

It seemed grand to take those long-awaited front seats in Chapel. It was on the 13th that we really felt like Seniors. We held a class meeting and elected new officers. After a pep rally in assembly on the 17th, we won our first football game. Playing under lights, we beat Falls Church 34-0. On the 22nd the Girls' Monogram Club initiated new members. "What sport are you supposed to be?"

We were down in the dumps for a while, hoping our brand new sponsor, Miss Sutton, would soon be out of the hospital. On the 24th we played our first home game, beating Wilson Memorial 19-0. All the Boosters rushed around selling programs while we watched the Juniors, remembering how hard we'd worked selling hot-dogs and cokes.

On the 28th the Angels presented their assembly program. Amazed, we watched "Doctor" Clark demonstrate the marvellous powers of his new invention. That same afternoon we finally received our Senior rings. "O boy! Aren't they super?", we cried, as we showed them to everyone.

OCTOBER

October started off with a cheer, as we beat Waynesboro 27-14. On the 5th, the HANDLIAN Staff was announced. "Looks like we've got some work ahead of us." That's what we said THEN. On the 7th the Library Club held initiation. "Who—or what —was that I just saw?" That same day the team went to Lexington to win 8-6.

The next day the girls took over the sports-light, as they took second place in the Softball Playday. The Honor Court met, and Jane Sowers was elected Chief Justice. On the 14th we had an unexpected holiday because of a teachers' meeting, and nearly everybody went to Harrisonburg to see the Judges win 7-0. We welcomed Miss Sutton back.

Th Glee Club elected their officers, and on the 19th gave a program in assembly. We all sat through a down-pour to see the Judges win over Clifton Forge 27-0 on the 22nd. On the 28th they traveled to Covington to lose 25-0 in mud up to HERE. "We can't win ALL the time!"

The teachers gave piles of homework over Halloween, but we got even that night. Everybody was sleepy the next day, but we woke up in assembly to hear the Lenaros. "Wish I could sing like that, She's cute, too."

NOVEMBER

With all the talent in our class, we had a hard time picking the Who's Who, but we finally did it and the results were announced on the 3rd. We nearly froze on the 5th, but it was worth it to see the Judges beat Staunton 32-0. That night we celebrated with a dance for the team at the Parish House.

We started taking pictures for the HANDLIAN, the Junior Play cast was announced, and the Booster Club named 10 new members. We celebrated Armistice Day by beating Warren County 28-0. At the V. F. W. Football Dance that night, "Hooray! Mr. Maddex says we've won the District Championship."

On the 19th we tried for the quarter-state championship, and tied 14-14 with William Fleming High of Roanoke. "What a team!" Thanksgiving brought us something to be thankful for—we beat Martinsburg 19-0. "All that and turkey, too—what a wonderful holiday!"

DECEMBER

We started the month with a Band Concert the night of the 1st. Most of the Seniors heard it from the Gym, where they were busy with crepe-paper. On the 2nd we had our super-special Senior Dance, complete with Santa Claus and carols. Nothing like getting the Christmas spirit early.

Learning over the week-end of Mr. Bennett's death, we held a Memorial Chapel for "C.D." on Monday the 5th. With tears in our eyes—and in our hearts—we quoted his own words of highest praise, "I take my hat off to him—he was a good Joe."

On the 7th the Junior Class presented their play, "Everything Nice." It brought back memories of the fun we had with our own Junior Play, "The High Window." Stockings, Fellowship Baskets, and tidal-wave of cards kept us busy till the holidays started. Seems like everybody caught the Christmas spirit, with Mrs. Garrabrandt and Miss Haynes passing out candy and ice-cream.

JANUARY

We came back to school on the 4th, after eating too much, sleeping too little, and having had a wonderful holiday in spite—or because—of it. We kept forgetting to date our papers '50 instead of '49.

"Aren't you finished with that typing YET?" We slaved on with our super-colossal yearbook. Flashbulbs blossomed everywhere, with Brooksie determined to get everybody's picture in the HANDLIAN.

On the 13th girls were excused from classes to bake their entries in the Cherry Pie Contest. "You mean you can cook, Too?"

"Now don't tell me, let me guess. Macbeth wrote a-a-he wrote the Canterbury Tales." With exams suddenly only a few days away, we started studying like mad. Nobody dared breathe from the 23rd on—too busy cramming. The end of exams brought no relief for the HANDLIAN Staff, as they rushed to meet that deadline.

FEBRUARY

On February 1st we took the HANDLIAN to press, confident that it would be the best yearbook yet produced at Handley. On the 10th, 11th, and 12th, the old place really rang with music, with the All State Band held here. The Senior Play went into rehearsal, with all our marvelous talent.

MARCH

On the 17th of March we proudly presented "The Adorable Imp." The rafters really rang with laughter and applause, but gee! We knew we could do it all the time.

APRIL

April 9th found us showing off our Easter bonnets. The Literary and Language teams proved that there're plenty of smart people at H. H. S. while on the 27th and 28th we showed our singing and dancing ability in the Pageant. "Let's make it good, everybody. This is the last time we'll see it from up here."

MAY

May came, and we ignored the Spring as we crammed for those dreaded exams. But they finally ended, and we settled down for our last week.

JUNE

Baccalaureate Sermon made us suddenly serious, as we gave thought to the future. June 7th brought the Prom, and all the fun that goes with it. The 8th, and the Senior Banquet, with the class will and prophecy read.

On the 10th, we marched for the last time to John Handley's grave. For perhaps the first time we appreciated what he did for us. That night we started the long walk toward the stage, our diplomas, and our future. Thanks, Handley, for making that future a certainty.

The Class of 1950 presented as their Senior Play, "The Adorable Imp". In trying to get a man for her mother, her grandmother, and herself the Adorable Imp ran into all kinds of trouble. A cat and a cat-hater, a walking snowman, and a merry mix-up in ages provided an evening of hilarious amusement for the audience.

JUNIOR PLAY

Last year the Junior Class presented as its one act play, "The High Window," a thrilling mystery drama which kept the students on the edge of their seats. The play proved to be a great success and one of which the class was proud.

JUNIOR STAND

Last year's Junior Stand broke all records for sales. Along with the championship football team, they had that "get out and go" spirit. Those courageous beings (?) yelling, "Hotdogs . . . . Pop . . . . Candy," made every endeavor to cater to the appetites of the hungry football fans.

Doctor • Lawyer • Merchant • Chief

Good telephone service is important to almost everyone. And good service starts with competent, well-trained telephone people, as shown by the following letters:

From a doctor: "The service is nearly perfect. Your operators are always efficient and their courtesy is refreshing."

From a lawyer: "No operator was ever more considerate or ever gave better service than she did. Please thank her in our behalf."

From a business man: "We appreciate the courteous and efficient service. In many instances your operators went beyond the normal line of duty in an effort to help in any way they could. May I say 'thank you'!"

From a fire chief: "Eighteen years of fire duty here have given me a very high regard for your telephone operators. They have shown alertness and resourcefulness . . . and have handled difficult problems or located badly identified fires like experienced fire department officers."

The "voice with a smile" holds a proud place on every telephone team. And her courteous, helpful service has become a traditional part of American life.
